THE CRIME

A lone white male boarded Northwest Orient Airlines Flight Number 305 at Portland, Oregon, on November 24, 1971. At approximately 3:22 p.m., while the flight was en route to Seattle, Washington, he indicated to a stewardess that his briefcase contained a bomb which would blow up the plane unless his demands were met.

The hijacker demanded $200,000 and four parachutes in exchange for the safety of the 36 passengers aboard the plane. When the aircraft landed at Seattle, Northwest Orient Airlines complied with his instructions. After he received the parachutes and money, the hijacker allowed all passengers and two of the airline stewardesses to deplane.

He then ordered the remaining crew members into the first-class section of the aircraft and informed them he desired to fly to Mexico City. The hijacker instructed that the plane proceed in a southerly direction and fly at a low altitude and slow speed which enabled the rear door of the plane to be opened during the flight.

The hijacker apparently bailed out somewhere between Seattle and Reno, Nevada, where when the plane landed, it was determined that "COOPER," two parachutes, and the ransom money had disappeared.

THE CRIMINAL

Artist conception drawings of the aircraft hijacker were prepared by the FBI Exhibits Section and are considered an excellent likeness. He is described as follows:

SUBJECT: NORJAK

On 2/5/73 [redacted] Woodland, Washington telephonically advised that in spite of repeated requests nothing has been done to make the property used by the US Army at the time of the Norjak search usable. [redacted] advised he has been most patient in this regard and with the advent of Spring desires that some affirmative action be taken as soon as possible to repair the damage caused by Army vehicles when use was made of his property. He was advised that this would be called to the attention of the Seattle office and upon some decision being made on property repair he would be advised.

b6
b7C

It is to be noted that SRA [redacted] has been in contact with US Army claims at Ft. Lewis and on 11/30/72 advised that securing of an Army grader through the claims section was being worked on.

b6
b7C

It is also to be noted that the Army has stated that the claims resulting from the Norjak search were paid through the Dept. of Justice rather than Army claims but the Army felt they could handle this particular matter.

It is requested that to avoid embarrassment to the Bureau on this matter in view of the long standing claim that some contact be made with Army claims to determine their disposition of the matter and that the writer be advised as soon as possible in order that [redacted] may be advised on action being taken.

On May 10, 1972, the "Seattle Flag", a liberal newspaper in Seattle, ran an article concerning this matter. In the article the "Flag" editor reportedly had a conversation with an individual who claimed to be identical with unsub in this matter. As part of the evidence to substantiate his claim, unsub reportedly made available xerox copies of a $20 bill which was reportedly part of the ransom money. The serial number on this bill was L51279635A, series 1969.

It is noted that the serial number of the $20 bill used in the Seattle "Flag" article is identical with the $20 bill recently obtained from Secret Service, who in turn obtained it from a local Seattle service station. This $20 bill was passed by a white female who apparently did not know of the alteration that had been made to it. The last three digits in the serial number have been changed by cutting out three digits from a $1 bill and inserting them into a $20 bill, using scotch tape.

RE: [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] was developed as a possible suspect when airport employees at Seattle-Tacoma International Airport, Seattle, Washington, state he resembled the composite drawing of the unknown subject in this case. At this time suspect, under the name of [REDACTED] was enroute to Hawaii. Suspect subsequently identified as [REDACTED] Spokane, Washington. Background information developed on [REDACTED] shows he is an unlikely suspect as he is [REDACTED] and has never been convicted of crimes of violence. Relatives believed he was employed in Spokane, Washington, in November, 1971, at the time of this hijacking. Prior to leaving Spokane, Washington, apparently for Hawaii, [REDACTED] and apparently skipped.

Suspect's whereabouts is unknown now and his whereabouts on November 24, 1971, are trying to be established through employment records so that he may be eliminated as a suspect. So far this has been to no avail in Spokane, Wash.

Suspect was possibly employed under the name of [REDACTED] Social Security Number [REDACTED] on the pertinent date by Chef's Orchid Inflight Services, Spokane International Airport, on pertinent date but these records are now located at Chef's Orchid Inflight Services, La Guardia Airport Station, P.O. Box 1030, Flushing, New York, 11371. The Chef's Orchid representative in Spokane, Washington, advised that [REDACTED] in the New York Office, should be able to determine the dates suspect was employed.

UNKNOWN SUBJECT; Also Known As Dan Cooper,
D. B. Cooper

On November 24, 1971, unknown subject boarded United Airlines Flight 305 scheduled to fly from Portland, Oregon, to Seattle, Washington, using the name of Dan Cooper. Unknown subject displayed to a stewardess aboard the flight a black attache case which was said to contain a bomb. Unknown subject, the hijacker, requested $200,000.00 and two parachutes.

At the Seattle-Tacoma International Airport, hijacker was provided with four parachutes and $200,000.00 in $20.00 bills and a canvas bank bag.

The plane departed the Seattle-Tacoma International Airport with three crew members in the cabin and a stewardess in the rear of the plane with the hijacker. Within minutes after takeoff at 7:36 p.m., the hijacker had the stewardess show him how to lower the steps and he then ordered her to go to the first class section which she did. At 8:05 p.m., the captain was in touch with the hijacker by the intercom. This was the last communication he had with the hijacker. Just prior to this communication, the captain had a signal indicating that the stairs had been lowered. At 8:12 p.m., the captain experienced "oscillation" in the plane and thought perhaps the hijacker had departed the plane.

Re Bureau airtel to All Offices Except Seattle, Portland, and Las Vegas, 11/29/71, and Seattle airtel to Bureau, 2/22/73.

Enclosed for each receiving office are two copies of an artist's conception showing UNSUB with and without glasses. The following offices will receive more copies because of investigation in their divisions:

| San Francisco | 10 copies |
| Butte         | 10 copies |

The intent of this change to the artist's composite is to more clearly show UNSUB's age and swarthy complexion.

A release of an interim composite (one that had not been fully evaluated by NORJAK eyewitnesses) in the December FBI Law Enforcement Bulletin makes it imperative that this final version not be released to the news media at this time.

This is the only unsolved hijacking; it should receive expeditious handling with every investigative effort expended to resolve this matter.

MONTHLY SUMMARY

Re: Seattle airtel to the Bureau, 2/7/73.

SEARCH AREA AND COURSE

In attempt to determine the accuracy of the first search area, the following was learned:

The first search area was calculated using a system of plotting known as "GEOREF" (i.e. Geographical Reference) which has a plotting error of plus or minus one mile. A new plotting system using a computer generated latitude and longitude has a plotting error of plus or minus 1/2 mile. Using the new system, [redacted] Northwest Orient Airlines [redacted] plotted a new course for the Norjak airplane and a new search area based on the new course. The new search area is partially outside the first area.

b7c

It is felt that if Unsub's parachute opened, he is no longer in the southwest Washington area, but if his parachute did not open, he would be in a corridor along the flight path. The time of jump is known, and an area approximately one mile by seven miles represents the area Unsub. would have landed in if his parachute did not open.

Seattle Division is currently making arrangements to search that portion of the above described area not previously searched.

Dear Sirs:

This letter concerns the skyjacking of Flight 305 on Thanksgiving Eve, 1971, by so-called D.B. Cooper. I would seriously like to offer a theory and some basic facts as to who this individual is.

Of course, I fully realize that the checking of any story requires time and resources, and that I could be completely wrong in my assumption. Nevertheless, should you decide to use my idea, and should it prove worthwhile, is there a reward still in force in this case? Thank you for your time. I await your reply.

Sincerely yours,

Dear Sirs:

I received my copy of the Grange News yesterday, & was attracted by the picture rather than by its caption. The picture of Dan Cooper resembles very much a man named [redacted] who worked in [redacted]

[redacted] When I left there in 1969, he was working in [redacted] [redacted]

b6
b7C

If I remember correctly, he was a brown eyed red-head. He was very brilliant & eager to get ahead, a heavy smoker & very polite. He wasn't quite that heavy as I remember him.
I believe they called him [redacted] but I'm not sure.

Sincerely yours

Can you identify this hijacker?

Artist's conception of Dan Cooper, the hijacker who bailed out of a Northwest Airlines jet with $200,000 a year ago last November. (From FBI Law Enforcement Bulletin)

FBI still hunts for 'D. B. Cooper'

Northwest Orient Airline's flight 305 was enroute from Portland to Seattle on the gray afternoon of November, 1971. A polite, soft-spoken passenger informed a stewardess he had a bomb in his briefcase. He said he would blow up the plane and its 36 passengers unless his demands were met. The stranger gave his name as Dan Cooper, later to be publicized over the world as "D. B. Cooper."

There was no argument. When the plane landed at Seattle-Tacoma airport, all passengers and two stewardesses were allowed to get off. Northwest Airlines delivered $200,000 and four parachutes, and Cooper ordered the rest of the crew into the front first class section. He told them he wanted to go to Mexico City.

The plane had a rear exit, and Cooper's plans had taken this into consideration. He ordered the pilot to fly low and at slow speed, then retired to the rear of the plane.

Somewhere between Seattle and Reno, Nev., the hijacker disappeared with his parachutes and the $200,000. Massive subsequent searches failed to find a trace of him.

If anyone sees a man answering his description they should notify the nearest FBI office. Telephone numbers are usually found on the inside of the front cover of the phone directory.

Cooper is described as 5-10 to 6 feet tall, weighing 170 to 180 pounds, having an olive complexion and a Latin appearance but no foreign accent. His dark hair is parted on the left and combed back. He is a heavy smoker of filter tip cigarettes, and very polite. DB Cooper-10837

"I don't get it. Says here, 'Land value increases from 4 to 8% yearly.' Why can't it be the price of potatoes?"

'Grange Couple' entries sought

Report forms and contest rules for the 1973 "Grange young couple of the year" contest have been sent to all Grange Masters by State Master Jack Silvers and Robert Elwess, state youth director.

Entries in the contest must reach the State Grange office on or before May 1, they emphasized. "We hope that every subordinate Grange having a young couple will who will not be over the age of 35 years as of Apr. 30, 1973, will honor them by selecting the couple as your subordinate Grange young couple of the year and entering them in this contest."

The semi-finalists will be invited to the state convention for personal interviews and written tests so the judges can make the final selection, the State Master and youth director said. Granges may appoint a special committee to select a young couple, if desired.

Alexandria, Virginia, advised flight crews normally carry sectional aeronautical charts on the scale of 1:500,000 and that larger charts on the scale of 1:250,000 are used only by training crews.

[redacted] stated his office only maintains the 1:500,000 scale charts and furnished one of the Seattle area which includes the area in question which is encircled in black magic marker pencil located by the coordinates of 122 degrees and 30 minutes longitude and 46 degrees and zero minutes latitude. [redacted] stated additional charts of Seattle area on the scale of 1:500,000 as well as charts on the scale of 1:250,000 can be obtained at Post Headquarters, G-2, Fort Lewis Army Base, Tacoma, Washington.

b7C

[redacted] Map Distribution District - Washington, Department of Interior, 1200 South Eads Street, Arlington, Virginia, furnished a copy of the U. S. Department of Interior Geological Survey Index of Topographic Maps of Washington. She advised the area in question is located in their Vancouver and Hoquiam, Washington, maps in the scale of 1:250,000. In addition, a larger scale of the area is contained in the fifteen-minute (scale 1:62,500 or one-inch equals approximately one mile) quadrangle maps of the Pigeon Springs, La Center, Yacolt, and Cougar, Washington, areas. These latter maps are the largest scale available except that the southern half of the La Center map can be obtained on a larger scale (seven and a half-minute maps of the Ridgefield and Battleground, Washington, areas on scale of 1:24,000 or one-inch equals 2,000 feet). [redacted] furnished copies of the maps for the above-mentioned Pigeon Springs, La Center, Yacolt, Cougar, Vancouver, and Hoquiam, Washington, areas.

b7C

[redacted] was very cooperative and apologized several times because some of the fifteen-minute quadrangle maps were dirty and soiled around the borders. This condition exists she stated because her office basically handles only the maps for the Eastern States (east of the Mississippi) and thus the few Western State maps on her shelves linger on the shelf and become dirty. She stated copies of the maps of the Western States are basically furnished by the Distribution Section, U. S. Geological Survey, Federal Center, Denver, Colorado.

Re subject [redacted] re memo of SA [redacted] [redacted] on February 21, 1973.

On March 15, 1973, [redacted]
[redacted] Renton, Washington, advised that he recalled seeing [redacted] approximately 20 years ago and at that [redacted]
[redacted] said he has not seen [redacted] since then but recalls him as resembling the composite drawing of COOPER with sunglasses which appeared in the PI shortly after the hijacking.
[redacted] said the color composite of COOPER does not resemble [redacted] as much and the composite of COOPER without sunglasses even less resembles [redacted]

[redacted] met [redacted] [redacted] and saw him frequently until the early 1950s. [redacted] said [redacted] was a very "wild type of person" who always wore sunglasses, was [redacted] and very familiar with the area COOPER reportedly flew over.
[redacted] said he never knew of any illegal activities committed by [redacted] but remembers him as the type of person who wanted money without working for it.

[redacted] said he had no reason to suspect [redacted] other than his resemblance to COOPER'S drawing as he remembers him 20 years ago. He added that [redacted] mentioned seeing [redacted] approximately two years ago in Renton but knew nothing about [redacted] background, family, residence, activities, or present whereabouts. He added [redacted] would be about 50 years old now and as he remembered him 20 years ago, was approximately 5'10" tall, 140 pounds, 4530

Re Seattle letter to Atlanta, 11/13/72. 164-81-1a

Enclosed for the Seattle Division is a 1 X 1½ color snapshot, full-face photograph of [redacted]

Referenced Seattle letter points out the obvious discrepancies in physical descriptions between suspect [redacted] and UNSUB. While these discrepancies are considered substantial enough to eliminate [redacted] from consideration as a suspect in this matter, it is felt that since [redacted] was suggested as a suspect by Federal Aviation Administration (FAA), and since a good likeness photograph of [redacted] is available, it is requested that the Seattle Division display the photograph to appropriate witnesses and thereafter return the photograph to Atlanta for ultimate return to the FAA, Atlanta.

Re: [redacted]

On 1/26/73, an anonymous letter was received at the Los Angeles Office in which the writer states "For several reasons, I strongly suspect 'D.B. Cooper' is really one [redacted] of Hollywood". He lists four reasons why he believes [redacted] is identical to the hijacker as

- (1) strongly resembles artist's sketch seen on television;
- (2) he was a paratrooper while in the military service;
- (3) he was out of the city when the event took place; and
- (4) he visits northern California.

Records of the Los Angeles County Sheriff's Office (IASO), Los Angeles, California Police Department (LAPD), and the Credit Bureau of Greater Los Angeles revealed no record identifiable with [redacted] Hollywood, California.

Records of the California Department of Motor Vehicles reveal one individual possibly identical to [redacted] referred to in the letter. This person was one [redacted] California Driver's License Number [redacted] male, born [redacted] 6'2", 180 pounds, blue eyes, blond hair, and residence shown as [redacted] Los Angeles, California. A former address as of 7/30/71, was shown as [redacted] Los Angeles, California. (This address is in Hollywood, California).

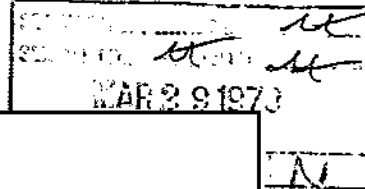

Discreet inquiry in the vicinity of [redacted] Los Angeles, revealed [redacted] was employed as a [redacted] Hollywood, California.

On 3/21/73, [redacted] was interviewed by SA [redacted] at his employment. He was noted to have light blond, very thin hair, light complexion, 6'2" tall, and blue eyes. He did not appear to resemble the artist's conception nor did his physical description match that furnished by witnesses in this matter.

b6
b7C

[redacted] advised he had never parachuted and his service experience consisted of being in the National Guard. He stated the writer of the letter is correct in that he does travel to northern California to meetings and conventions in connection with the [redacted] business. He recalls having last been in Seattle in 1963.

b6
b7C

[redacted] stated he spent Thanksgiving Day of 1971 at [redacted] in Pasadena with [redacted]

b6
b7C

[redacted] does not appear to resemble the artist's conception or match the description of the unknown subject, appears to be a reputable businessman and criminal and credit checks reveal no derogatory information regarding him. In view of the above, no further investigation will be conducted by Los Angeles at this time unless advised to the contrary by Seattle.

AT [REDACTED] MONTANA

Efforts to contact [REDACTED] on February 9 and 12, 1973, were negative.

On February 13, 1973, [REDACTED] who is [REDACTED] was interviewed at his residence at which time he furnished the following information:

[REDACTED] told him about conversations she had had with an individual by the name of [REDACTED] from [REDACTED] Montana. Apparently [REDACTED] and one evening while they were having a few drinks, [REDACTED] started bragging about the fact that he knew D. B. COOPER. Based upon conversations he has had with [REDACTED] he has come to the following conclusions concerning the possible identity of the individual [REDACTED] was referring to:

Mr. X, [REDACTED] went to school with him. [REDACTED] has [REDACTED] possibly involved, whom he will identify as Mr. Y. [REDACTED] and Mr. Y are from Minneapolis, Minnesota. Mr. X was raised in [REDACTED] Montana. Mr. X is parachute qualified from his service in the Army; he is also a qualified navigator because of his flight experience. [redacted] name just came to mind after he had talked with [redacted] about her conversations with [redacted]. [redacted] would not even come close to the description of D. B. COOPER. [redacted] is younger, shorter, has reddish-brown hair, weighs less than 160 pounds, and could not be over 5'9" tall, has a light complexion, and as previously stated. [redacted] name came to mind because he had been [redacted]. SUBJECT: NORJAK

During a recent conversation with SA [REDACTED] Vancouver RA a discussion re captioned matter dwelt on other hijackings where the subject made dry runs on the same aircraft for purposes of perfecting his plan of hijacking.

In line with this matter it is felt that a logical lead, unless already explored, would be to make an attempt to secure passenger flight manifests for a 30 day period prior to the hijack date in an attempt to determine where subject in NORJAK did in fact make any trial runs to perfect his plan. It is entirely possible that through this medium information could be developed concerning the NORJAK subject.

ReBuairtel to Seattle 1/2/73.

Enclosed herewith for the Little Rock Office is one copy each of artist's conception A and B of unsub dated 1/2/73.

On 3/27/73 revised color sketches were displayed to [redacted] Northwest Airlines (NWA), who was aboard Flight 305, 11/24/71, and she advised that sketch B bears close resemblance to unsub. She advised that unsub is not as "smooth looking" as sketch B. [redacted] advised that all features, with the exception of the lower lip, bear very close resemblance to unsub. She advised that unsub's lower lip gave a "pouty" appearance. Lower lip of sketch B has too much flesh toward the corners of the mouth. She advised that the middle of the lower lip appears larger due to the slimness of the corners of the lower lip.

Attempts to contact [redacted] at her residence and through NWA negative to date.

Memorandum

TO : SAC, SEATTLE (164-81)

DATE: 3/30/73

FROM : SA THOMAS J. MANNING

SUB E

SUBJECT: NORJAK

Upon cessation of the most recent terrain search in Clark County, Washington it is felt that the following comments are pertinent since they come from one individual who has participated in every search operation which have a total time expenditure of approximately 9 weeks.

The search conducted by the United States Army was the best effort which could be expended considering the number of personnel involved, logistic and support problems, weather and terrain factors. This is pointed out by one speaking from actual experience, intimately acquainted with details of the various searches, since there appears to have arisen some question on the adequacy of the military search.

The searches conducted by Agent personnel were also the best effort which could be put forth considering the same problems mentioned above.

The most recent search appears to have been based upon the securing of new data which corrected the most logical spot at which the hijacker exited from the aircraft, which resulted in the moving of what has been referred to in past communications as point A. However no concrete information has been developed that the parachute of the hijacker did not open and the renewing of the search of the terrain at new point A appears to have been based on mere conjecture that the chute did not in fact deploy.

In view of the above it is respectfully and earnestly recommended that absent concrete information concerning the hijacker or evidence in this matter being in the searched or unsearched terrain that no further terrain searches be undertaken. It is felt that to do so would result in an unwarranted expenditure of agent time and effort and an expenditure of Bureau funds which is not economically feasible or justified.
